LEAD YOUR TEAM WITH WONDER

ome questions close rather than open doors to constructive thought and action. They teach people to react from problem to problem instead of create new possibilities for effectiveness and wellbeing.

Questions posed from an attitude of WONDER fuel creativity, innovation, adaptability, and growth, and they help people build positive bonds with each other. Bring the spirit of ☆ WONDER into how you lead teams by experimenting with one or more of these questions in your next team meeting!

Ο EEK valuing and including diversity, challenging assumptions curiosity, looking at multiple sides, embracing the whole w How can we bring genuine curiosity ANE to our work together? APPREC/47/01 & When we value and listen to each siving beauty, feeling seting other, what do we learn? How can How can we make our challenges How can we be more appreciation make us more inclusive in our decisions? and awe part of our effective, connected, team culture? and well? What possibilities do we see for our team and the people in it? beyond? For what are we most grateful?

WONDER

"Wonder is the beginning of wisdom." - SOCRATES

¢

G

work circumstances for growth, work circumstances for growth,

RO

NIN

G

 $\mathbf{O}$

How can we make a positive contribution to each other and

How can our work help us thrive as individuals and a team?

READY TO THRIVE? Visit bewellleadwell.com/assessment or contact us at info@wisdom-works.com.